Music training course for 16-24 year olds

Training and development towards a career in music
Autumn 2016

@ the Lyric

World Music Academy: Inspire

Are you a young musician who sings, plays an instrument or creates their own music? Do you want to study music or work in the field of music, but are not sure how to start that journey?

Musiko Musika's World Music Academy: Inspire is a new training and creative development course for culturally diverse and talented young musicians aged 16 to 24. During the course you will develop your own musical skills, join a performance group, work with our fantastic and inspiring team of professional musicians and be trained to use your skills on a work placement with our classes at the Lyric.

We want young musicians from all backgrounds to be able to progress towards a career in the music industry or working with community music, so don't miss out!!

The main elements of the course are:

- Five Creative Musicianship sessions, developing your musical and creative skills alongside the rest of the trainee team
- Five half days of training in leading and facilitating music workshop activities
- Individual mentoring sessions
- Rehearsing and performing with other musicians on the course
- A five session work placement on Musiko Musika's projects*

The course includes work to attain an Arts Award qualification (Bronze)

*A fee will be paid to trainees for their work placement activities, and bursaries are available to cover travel expenses during the course.

Course dates for autumn term:

Mondays from 3rd October 18.45 to 20.30

Plus 27th & 28th October 10.00 to 16.00

Spring term and work placement dates to be arranged

All course sessions and work placement activities take place at the Lyric Hammersmith
